

GREENGUIDE

Green Guide for Gifts & Giving

new edition*, published October 2008, £8.99

Christmas • birthdays • special events • celebrations • vouchers corporate giving • sponsorship • party favours • wedding lists

The complete guide to green and ethical giving – readers can choose from organic and fair trade food, hampers, clothes, shoes, accessories, chocolates, wine, cosmetics, gadgets, jewellery, toys, gift vouchers, sponsorship, adoption, books, magazines and much much more.

Or they can consider something completely different – like buying a community tap to supply clean water in Nicaragua or funding an organic farm in Rwanda.

Or they could give a gift voucher for an organic cooking weekend or a course on low impact living – or maybe splash out on an environmental research trip. Maybe they would buy an acre of rainforest; adopt a dolphin, a turtle or an orangutan; send medicines to developing countries; sponsor bees, cattle and goats; build a toilet or a well; or help fund a school.

Each gift idea in the Guide is a story in itself and highlights the fantastic work that many people are doing to make lifestyles more sustainable and less damaging to the environment.

There is something planet-friendly for everyone in The Green Guide for Gifts & Giving. Gift suggestions start at less than £1 and go all the way up to more than £5,000.

Key content includes:

- more than 400 of the best green, ethical or natural gift suggestions, with pictures and product descriptions
- over 400 listings for planet-friendly mail order suppliers and retailers
- details of the best green and ethical shopping websites and mail order catalogues
- tips and advice for greening your gifts
- advice on how to enjoy a green Christmas and other celebrations

About the Green Guide

The Green Guide, first published in 1994, is the UK's most comprehensive directory of planet-friendly goods, services, contacts and organisations. It is the best source of everything organic, natural, fairtrade and green, containing all the information you need for eco-friendly shopping and one planet living.

* New edition

The Green Guide for Gifts & Giving is based upon the successful Green Guide for Christmas which has appeared in three previous editions. This new and completely revised edition is suitable for year-round use and is not restricted to Christmas time.
